Let's send the Premier a message

It has been more than a year since the Liberal Government put the planning process for a new school in Edmondson Park on hold.

It is simply not good enough that a new school could be up to four years away.

The Liberal Government has collected millions in stamp duty from local residents - it's about time they built a school.

Yes, I want the Liberal Government to fast-track a new school in Edmondson Park and include funding for construction in the coming Budget.
